

Integritas Financial Consulting Announces Christopher Hehmeyer Named Chairman of Advisory Board

March 17, 2016 08:45 AM Eastern Daylight Time

CHICAGO & BOCA RATON, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Integritas Financial Consulting ("Integritas"), a boutique advisory specializing in futures and securities, announced today that industry veteran and recent National Futures Association Chairman Christopher Hehmeyer is now serving as chairman of the company's advisory board.

"We are very pleased that Chris has decided to lead our board as his industry experience, integrity and knowledge will be a great benefit to Integritas and, more importantly, our clients. We are looking forward to growing our business with his direct involvement," said Carl Gilmore, Integritas Founder and President.

Hehmeyer is the managing member of HTG Capital Partners, LLC, a proprietary trading group. Hehmeyer is a member of the board of directors of the Futures Industry Association (FIA), where he has served in several capacities, including vice-chairman of the board. He was a co-founder and partner at Goldenberg Hehmeyer & Co., until its sale in 2007.

Hehmeyer was director of the Chicago Board of Trade from 1984 to 1987 and has chaired, vice-chaired, or served on 40 committees at the CBOT. He also served on the Board of Governors of the Board of Trade Clearing Corporation from 1993 until 1999, and as Chairman from 1996 to 1998.

Hehmeyer began his career as a floor runner and then became an independent broker and trader in 1978. He resides in Chicago and is a native of Memphis, Tennessee.

Gilmore has over twenty-five years of public and private company experience, managing futures commission merchants and broker-dealers in strategic, international, operational, legal, compliance, client-facing, risk management, crisis management and executive roles. He is currently a member of National Futures Association ("NFA") Compliance and Risk Committee.
